

Pregnancy Testing

Required Testing:

- Prenatal Lab Work taken within the first 16 weeks which include: Blood type, Antibody screen/titer, Hemoglobin and Hematocrit, Syphilis testing, Hepatitis B, Rubella titer, Varicella antibody screen, HIV testing, Gonorrhea and Chlamydia culture, Pap smear if needed, Urinalysis for protein and glucose.
- At every prenatal visit a urine will be taken to test for protein and glucose.
- Gestational Diabetes Testing and Hemoglobin and Hematocrit will be drawn between 26-28 weeks
- Group Beta Strep Culture will be taken between 35-37 weeks

Optional Testing:

- Progenity nxtPanel available after 10 weeks: Genetic Testing for Cystic Fibrosis, Spinal Muscular Atrophy and Fragile X Syndrome
- Progenity Verifi available after 10 weeks gestation: Testing for Down Syndrome (Trisomy 21), Edwards Syndrome (Trisomy 18), Patau Syndrome (Trisomy 13), Turner Syndrome (Monosomy X), Klinefelter Syndrome (XXY), Jacobs Syndrome (XYY), Triple X Syndrome (XXX).
- Quad Screening available between 15-18 weeks Gestation: Testing for Down Syndrome (Trisomy 21), Edwards Syndrome (Trisomy 18), and Open Spina Bifida

All of the optional tests are screening tools, they are not final. If you have a positive result we can discuss further options for you and your baby.